1. Heard learned counsel for the rival parties. Having seen the impugned order, no case is made out to interfere with the impugned order. View taken by both the Courts below is a reasonable and possible view. Therefore, the petition is liable to be dismissed. However, at this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that it would be open for the petitioner bank to seek order of attachment attaching amount of gratuity by moving appropriate proceedings in that behalf. He, therefore, submits that the respodent should not be allowed to withdraw amount of gratuity for the period of four weeks from today.

2. In the above view of the matter, the petition is dismissed in limine, however, the respondent shall be entitled to withdraw this amount after four weeks from today subject to the orders of the appropriate authority that may be passed. All rival contentions are kept open.
